

Annual Conference Trauma and Society

Trauma and Society:

„Sequel and Resilience. The 10th Anniversary of Russian-Georgian War”

April 25 , 11:00 – 17:00

April 26, 11:00 – 18:00

Ilia State University

PROGRAM

25 April (Auditorium G106)

11:00 -11:15	Opening of the Conference
11:15 - 12:00	10 years later; From War to Peace in Georgian Society – Jana Javakhishvili (keynote speech)
12:00 -12:15	Break
12:15 -13:30	Panel – 10 years after the Georgian Russian war – existing challenges and perspectives for the future Panelists: Kaupo Kand – Head of Field Office of International Criminal Court in Georgia Lia Chlachidze – Founder of “Museum of August war” in Ergneti Salome Ugulave – Editor in Chief of Tabula Lasha Bugadze – writer
13:30 -14:00	Break
14:00 -14:45	Trauma Informed Mental Health Care for War Affected Population – Nino Makhashvili (keynote speech)
14:45 -15:00	Break
15:00 -17:00	Workshop - Integrative contextual approach to understanding and assisting survivors of man-made trauma – a case presentation and group work. Boris Drozdek

April 26 (Auditorium G106)

11:00 -12:15	How do we salve our wounds? Perspectives on collective strategies of dealing with trauma and violence and making peace with the past – Boris Drozdek (keynote speech)
12:15 -12:30	Break
12:30 -14:30	Workshop - Working with traumatized military personnel - Eric Vermetten
14:30 -15:00	Break
15:00 -16:00	Humanity in a Stupor: Attempts and Challenges to Meet the Mental Health Needs of Refugees in Lebanon" Sana Hamzeh (keynote speech)
16:00 -16:15	Break
16:00 -16:15	Debates on Professional Ethics Panelists: Nino Makhashvili Jana Javakhishvili
17:45-18:00	Closing of the Conference